The wide open spaces in this home are perfect for entertaining or just a quiet night at home. The Pamlico offers 3 bedrooms and 2 baths and is designed for today's busy lifestyle. The open design of the house allows for family and guests to easily flow from one area of the house to another. This split-bedroom plan gives privacy while optimizing space. The combination mud room and utility laundry just off the garage makes it easy to keep things organized and out of sight. Come home each evening ready to relax on your front porch with a glass of tea, while you watch the kids play in the front yard.
